Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .men, from love or respect, follow the women, like sheep, to church. But when these men meet their fellows in business or social circles they carefully refrain from mentioning religion in the course of conversation. Why so, if it be not to keep their women-folk ignorant while they remain wise? So you see that it is not really our women, but our old women of the stronger sex, who are the chief culprits in keeping our good women in a state of bondage to the church or chapel. Is it any wonder also that they run to the church when so often they can t find true men folk at home, and thus are swayed by the oily tongues of the old women in the pulpit, who yet do not know the what, and the where of truth. When our reason (the brain) sees clearly and...
