DEEPENING THE COLORS: LIFE INSIDE THE STORY OF GOD

Dordt College Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Sarah Versluis De Young (illustrator). 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .While this book is aimed at Christian high school seniors and first-year college students, it is a very helpful book for anyone interested in who we are called to be in Jesus Christ. Hielema begins appropriately with the Kingdom of God. In the first chapter, he explains that the main purpose of the Bible is to reveal the Lord God rather than solving our problems. He says that the Bible is like a six-chapter storybook that could be subtitled the story of God deepening the colors as we move from the colors of the Garden of Eden to the jewels of the new Jerusalem. God promises to deepen our colors as we grow from seeing who we are called to be in Jesus Christ and finding our calling from him. Our identity is always within His calling. As we follow God's call, our colors as precious jewels in His kingdom continue to deepen. We follow truth-walking habits as we seek to follow Him. As he calls us to prophetic living, he says Biblical prophecy is not focused on foretelling the future; it declares the trust in the name of the Lord. He is very sensitive to the challenges God's children face: sometimes we see a playground, at other times a workshop, even a battle ground, and in the worst of times, an intensive care unit. The book moves through the challenges of being a follower of Jesus to finally considering, after we know who we are called to be in God's kingdom, what are students now supposed to do. This concern with our work comes, as it should,...
