The introduction of twice six for full twelve is not only less clumsy, but more agreeable to Greek idiom. It frequently happened that while he was translating, he could pour forth many lines at a time; these he wrote down with great rapidity, and when he came to any thing that perplexed him, he would go on, and leave it to be finished at a revisal. Many spaces for words may be found in the M.S. So in Iliad 24 line, 543, we have, them on Before the inspiring God that urg d their course, Their coursers spirit not their own Their mules and horses fly with double force. naval And now they pass d the tow ry wall, and found The guards while the bowls go round....
