Serpent s Kiss Franca Marshall, a promising post-graduate student from the UK, is on study leave in Italy when she meets Zmey Ballotini, the eldest son of a local noble family. Franca is completing her thesis on the Etruscan civilization and is taking part in a small archaeological dig, in the grounds of Villa di Castello, the ancestral home of the Ballotini family. They meet by accident in the last week of Franca s stay, and quickly embark on a passionate romance. Zmey s family is powerful, and unknown to Franca, Zmey is hiding a dark and sinister secret. By day, Zmey is a charming and boisterous lover, but by night, he is confined to his room in the Villa, transforming in the light of the full moon into a dragon of terrifying ferocity and greed. Dismayed by her failure to find anything significant on the dig to help her with her thesis, Franca is swept off her feet by Zmey. Then quite by chance, Franca unearths a discovery of what could be national importance. Her delight and happiness could not be more complete. However, Franca is unaware that her breakthrough will lead her into personal danger, and worse, unfold a mystery that will threaten her new love.
