

Railway Oddities

By Geoffrey Body

The History Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Railway Oddities, Geoffrey Body, Over the years railways have seen a diverse mix of traffic and many unusual events have occurred. There have been special services for Glastonbury festival goers, consignments as varied as boilers and bees, rural branches like the 'Crab & Winkle' and the 'Strawberry Line', trains to carry corpses, circus trains, a railway with a lifeboat, zig-zag routes, and unusual commercial enterprises such as excursions to watch prize fighters, typing services on city-to-city expresses and cinema coaches. This lovingly compiled collection of titbit's captures the fascination and variety of railways with over 250 accounts garnered from the press, friends and colleagues and from the author's own experience of dramatic, intriguing and sometimes hilarious events, creating an immensely readable collection of information and stories from 150 years of railway activity.

READ ONLINE
[1.67 MB]

Reviews

I just started off reading this article publication. This really is for all who statte there had not been a really worth looking at. You will not feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you ask me).

-- Prof. Jeremie Kozey

Good e book and valuable one. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You are going to like how the article writer publish this publication.

-- Malcolm Block