Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Means of Providing Cheap Food I would urge in the strongest manner upon all Landlords, for their own sakes, the wisdom and prudence of having as many shops as possible opened, - so as to enable the Labourers to purchase food near their Homes or Works. The principle of a quick return and small profit, with cash dealings, should be insured by a sufficient competition every where. Three Half-pence per stone, on one ton of meal, is a pound per ton, gain. Not only meal but every other article suited for food should be provided at these shops. Fifty Pounds would be quite a sufficient capital to set up such a shop, which could be had from any of the banks on bill, the interest to be a charge against profit, until the shopkeeper could realise the requisite capital. One and a half ton of meal, turned in each week, would gain, (at three half-pence per stone profit,) Seventy-eight pounds a year, which in itself would pay a person for his time in keeping...
