Not illustrated. 1857 Excerpt: . . . by a corrupt bargain and sale; which should cause every honest man to blush for his country. The great national parties were now organized, and, as my honest sentiments placed me in the minority in my county, of course I retired from politics. But I say now, if the people would not be led by party considerations, but would select honest and capable men, I cannot see the impropriety of canvassing, for office on Christian principles. There is an incident or two connected with my little political experience, that I will give: The first time I ran for office in Sangamon County, I was on the north side of the Sangamon River, as we say in the east, electioneering, or rather trying to get acquainted with the people, for I was at that early day a great stranger to many of them. Passing through a brushy...
