Excerpt: .such a committee, but that before any decided move on the part of the Government could be made, the popular voice must be heard expressing a desire for the proposed change. Since that date the New Decimal Association has been actively engaged in distributing information on the subject and in securing extended support. The present Chancellor of the Exchequer and President of the Board of Trade have been in turn asked to hear the views of the leaders of this movement, and have promised to receive a deputation on the 25th January next. When it is mentioned that it is expected that the Duke of Westminster and other Peers, the Agents-General for Victoria, the Cape of Good Hope, and Queensland, several Members of Parliament, and delegates from the principal Chambers of Commerce, and from the Trade Councils of Manchester, Sheffield, Glasgow, etc., have promised to take part in the proposed demonstration, it will be recognized that there is some reasonable evidence put forward that the subject is obtaining sufficient interest to warrant the demand of the New Decimal Association for the appointment of a Select Committee to inquire into the whole question. This subject has lately received much attention in the United States of America and in the Colony of Victoria. On the 21st September last the Melbourne Legislative Assembly adopted a motion favoring a universal union for the introduction of the decimal system in money, weights and measures. In the same month the Trades...
